Winamp Group SA continues the implementation of its bond financing with a second €250,000 subscription by Hexagon Capital Fund

WINAMP GROUP SA (Euronext Growth Paris and Brussels: ALWIN) (“Winamp Group” or the “Company”), owner of the Winamp platform, announces that the Luxembourg-based fund Hexagon Capital Fund has proceeded, on 6 November 2025, with a second subscription of 250 bonds issued by Winamp Group SA, each with a nominal value of €1,000, representing a total amount of €250,000.

This subscription was made at the request of Winamp Group SA, in accordance with the terms of the bond financing agreement for a maximum amount of €2,000,000, entered into between the two parties and announced in the press release dated 18 September 2025.

The agreement provides for the possibility of successive bond issuances until 30 September 2026, depending on the Company’s financing needs and subject to the Investor’s approval.

The proceeds from this new tranche will be used to support the Group’s development and the commercial launch of the Winamp for Creators platform, in line with the growth strategy previously announced.

The first subscription, completed on 18 September 2025 for an amount of €250,000, was fully repaid in shares, in accordance with the provisions of the financing agreement, as indicated in the press release dated 18 September 2025, through the creation of 978,091 new shares, increasing the Company’s number of shares from 15,183,434 to 16,161,525, and its share capital from €30,859,119.10 to €31,109,119.10.
