Winamp Group SA – Results of the Extraordinary General Meeting of 6 February 2026

Winamp Group SA informs the market that the Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders held on 6 February 2026[1] was unable to validly deliberate, as the legally required quorum was not reached. Consequently, none of the proposed resolutions could be adopted.

A second Extraordinary General Meeting, convened with the same agenda, will be able to validly deliberate regardless of the number of shares present or represented. It will be held on 23 February 2026 at 10:00 a.m. at the Company's registered office.

Information relating to shareholding structure and regulatory framework

Following the capital increase carried out on 9 January 2026, Maxximum SRL holds 47.38% of the share capital of Winamp Group SA.

Subject to the adoption of item 1 on the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting of 23 February 2026, the combined indirect shareholding held by Maxximum SRL and Maxximum Group SRL, both controlled by Mr Alexandre Saboundjian, would temporarily reach 52.57% of the Company's share capital.

In accordance with Article 57/2, §1 of the Royal Decree of 27 April 2007 on public takeover bids (as amended), companies whose securities are admitted to trading on Euronext Growth are subject to a mandatory takeover bid threshold set at 50% of the voting rights. The Company specifies that Article 52, §1, 7° of the same Royal Decree provides for an exemption in the event of a temporary threshold crossing between 50% and 52%, subject to strict conditions being met.

In this context, and in order to ensure strict compliance with the applicable regulations, Mr Alexandre Saboundjian will proceed, prior to the next Extraordinary General Meeting, in a gradual, orderly and linear manner, with the sale of a limited number of shares representing approximately 0.57% of the Company's share capital, with the sole objective of reducing his indirect shareholding below the 52% threshold.

Furthermore, subject to the adoption of item 1 on the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting of 23 February 2026, Mr Alexandre Saboundjian will have a period of twelve (12) months from such adoption to reduce his indirect shareholding below the 50% threshold, in accordance with the applicable legal and regulatory framework.

These disposals are of a strictly technical nature and in no way reflect any intention to disengage. The reference shareholder reaffirms his long-term commitment to the Company and its strategy.
